THE FIRST SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

Rector's Rambling

Thank you for your prayers this week as my son Sam had to be hospitalized for Influenza

A and Pneumonia!

Today we enter a new Church season, that of The Epiphany. Last week's column had information about this.

You may notice that there are now Holy Water Stoups installed at the entrances to the chapel and the church. This is an ancient custom of the Church to have a receptacle at the entry of the place of worship containing water that has been blessed. As you see pictured here, the new stoup has a Celtic cross on it, a reoccurring theme here at St. John's. The cross outside the ministry center, the beautiful cross on the wall inside the ministry center were both obtained based on the processional cross we use every Sunday. The new stoups continue that theme.

So what is it for? Holy Water is what is known as a sacramental. These are objects that help point us toward the sacraments themselves, which are an assurance of God's grace/blessings. Things like icons, crucifixes, and holy water are reminders of the abundance of God's blessings toward us and draw us to holiness.

Holy Water at the entrance of a church beckons back to the ancient Jewish tradition of ritual purity, where one washed the feet and hands before entering worship. Remember that Jesus did a similar thing to his apostles at the last supper when he washed their feet. (John 13: 1-17)

We have been cleansed in the waters of baptism (a sacrament) and holy water at the entrance of the church is a tangible reminder of that being born again in water and the Holy Spirit (a sacramental).

Of course this is optional, but if you would like you dip your finger in the water and make the sign of the cross, asking that God cleanse your heart and prepare you for worship.

Also, in the sacristy will be a container pictured below. This contains Holy Water, water that has been blessed by a priest or a bishop. It is there in order to fill the stoups around the church. But it is also available for you if you would like some Holy Water for your home. Some people like to have a stoup in their house. Small ones for home are available online or at a religious supply store.

Having sacramentals such as these can be an aid to us in our spiritual life, reminding us of the blessings available by God's Grace.

ABOUT ST. JOHN'S

To Our Visitors

Welcome! The parishioners and clergy of St. John's are delighted that you have come to worship with us. We hope this house of prayer provides you with a place in which you can find solace, comfort, and strength. We invite your inquiries about the ministries available here at St. John's.

We offer a barrier-free environment for the infirm and handicapped. An access ramp for wheel chairs is located at the SOUTHWEST entrance of the church, near Woodward Avenue in the garden. There is also an elevator in the building which provides access to the undercroft, so everyone may fully participate in activities and fellowship.

We would be very pleased if you plan to return to St. John's on a regular basis, to WORSHIP as part of our parish family. Please complete a Visitor's Form located in the Order of Service and place it in the collection plate or give it to an usher.

Thank you for coming! We look forward to greeting you following the service today and hope to chat with you during our time of fellowship in the undercroft.

Communion Procedure

The Episcopal House of Bishops, in a 1979 teaching, lays out the following guideline for non-Episcopalians to receive communion in an Episcopal Church: The persons should 1) have been Baptized with water in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, 2) believe Christ is present in the sacrament, 3) have been admitted to Holy Communion in their own denomination, and 4) are attempting, by God's grace, to live in love and charity with their neighbor. If you have any questions, please speak to the priest.

To receive the Host, raise your crossed hands, right palm over left. You may also receive directly on the tongue. If you do not wish to receive the Cup, cross your arms over your chest and wait for the chalice bearer to pass by.

If you are not receiving communion, you still may come forward to the rail, cross your arms over your chest, and receive a blessing.

If you are physically unable to approach the rail, please inform an usher and the Sacrament will be brought to you.

Pastoral Care

Please inform the clergy if you or a family member are ill, hospitalized, or unable to attend the regular worship of the Church so that a pastoral visit can be arranged. Please contact the clergy to discuss arrangements for baptisms, weddings, or burials before any announcement or other plans are made.

Outreach

Food may be deposited in the basket at the entrance of the church to aid the neighborhood ministry to the poor through Crossroads and Georgia Street Community Co-op.

Dedicated donations for the support of the Malawi Education Fund and Rector's Discretionary Fund can be put in the collection plate with a note in the memo line or on the envelope.

Collections of school supplies, cleaning supplies, garden tools, Christmas presents, mittens, sweaters, etc. occur throughout the year to support our community.

St. John's Teaching Notes

Offices of Instruction

The Book of Common Prayer is in its entirety a teaching document. Its worship services of the Daily Offices (Morning and Evening Prayer), Holy Communion, and the various Pastoral Offices (Visitation of the Sick, Matrimony, Baptism, etc.) serve not only to glorify God and serve his people, but they also help to promote and preserve right doctrine as found in scripture, and to instruct the people of God in the same.

But more directly teaching related to teaching is The Catechism and The Offices of Instruction. These are written to aid in the learning of the basics of the faith, in a question and response format, and can also be used as a special worship service.

To start the calendar year off right, below is a section of the second Office of Instruction to help us to be reminded why we are here this Sunday morning.

Question. What is the Church?

Answer. The Church is the Body of which Jesus Christ is the Head, and all baptized people are the members.

Question. How is the Church described in the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds?

Answer. The Church is described in the Creeds as One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic.

Question. What do we mean by these words?

Answer. We mean that the Church is One; because it is one Body under one Head;

Holy; because the Holy Spirit dwells in it, and sanctifies its members;

Catholic; because it is universal, holding earnestly the Faith for all time, in all countries, and for all people; and is sent to preach the Gospel to the whole world;

Apostolic; because it continues steadfastly in the Apostles' teaching and fellowship.

Question. What is your bounden duty as a member of the Church?

Answer. My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his Church; and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom.

A DAILY PRAYER FORSt. John's Church

Bless, O Lord, this parish, and grant that Thy Name may be worshipped here in truth and purity, to all generations. Give Thy grace and wisdom to our Clergy, that they may exercise holy discipline, and be themselves patterns of holiness, simplicity, and self-denial. Bless all who worship here; take from us all pride, vanity and self-conceit, and give to us true humility and self-abasement. Enlighten our minds, subdue our wills, purify our hearts, and so penetrate us with Thy Spirit, and fill us with Thy love that we may go forth animated with earnest zeal for Thy glory; and may Thy living Word so dwell within our hearts that we may speak with that resistless energy of love which shall melt the hearts of sinners to the love of Thee. Open, O Lord, the hearts and hands of Thy people, that we may be ready to give and glad to distribute to our necessities. Bless the founders and benefactors of this parish, and recompense them with the riches of Thine everlasting kingdom, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.
